Using Brother IF-50 And IF-60 Interface Boxes With Apple IIGS

This article last reviewed: 23 March 1988

You can interface your Apple IIGS with a Brother typewriter, using either the Brother IF-50 or IF-60 interface box.

These are the pin-outs for the cable:

```
Apple IIGS                    Brother
---------------------         ---------
1                              6
2                              20
3                              3
5                              2
4,7,8 (tied together)          7
                               4,5,8 (tied together)
