Business Graphics III: INTERCHANGE

The INTERCHANGE command automatically adds a ".text" suffix to your file name unless disabled by adding a period at the end of the file.

        Enter            What INTERCHANGE tries to find

        file.            file
