Information Sources for AIX (9/96)

Article Created: 17 September 1996

TOPIC -----

I have purchased an Apple Network Server 500 and Apple Network Server 700, where can I find additional information on AIX?

DISCUSSION -----

You can find training and other information on these IBM published Internet web sites:

- IBM AIX Support Site: <http://service.boulder.ibm.com/aixsupport/>
Links to conferences, training, information sources, hints, and tips.
- Another good IBM AIX Site: <http://www.austin.ibm.com/services/>

For specific information on ordering classes and documentation, call:

- IBM Direct Order: 800-IBM-CALL (426-2255)
- IBM Software Registration: 800-446-8989
- IBM FaxBack Server: 1-800-IBM-4FAX
- IBM Customer Publication Support: 1-800-879-2755
- to order documentation

Other information can be found on these Internet resources:

- AIX Public Domain/Shareware Site: <http://aixpdslib.seas.ucla.edu/>
- AIX FAQ's: <http://www.emerson.emory.edu/services/aix-faq/>
- USENET: comp.unix.aix

For compilers, order the Software Development Solutions for AIX 4.1 CD and appropriate licenses from IBM Direct. Also the gcc compiler for AIX is available on the Internet.
