AppleCD SC: Fix for Use with Macintosh IIci

This article last reviewed: 17 February 1990

TOPIC -----

Dealers and customers are upset because Apple currently do not support Foreign File Access when using the AppleCD SC with the Macintosh IIci. Apple has told dealers that an update is on the way.

What is the status of the update?

DISCUSSION -----

The update to the software became available in late January, 1990 and is on AppleLink. There is a Read Me file and package to download. Here is the path:

Developer Services
 Macintosh Developer Technical Support
 Tool
 CD-ROM
Copyright 1990 Apple Computer, Inc.
