Power Macintosh: CloseView Not Compatible (10/96)

Article Created: 22 April 1994

Article Reviewed/Updated: 2 November 1996

TOPIC -----

I have a Power Macintosh 7100/66. I recently installed System 7.5 Update 2.0. While I was looking at the custom installation components, I noticed that the information box for the CloseView control panel states that it is not compatible with PowerPC-based computers. Is this true?

DISCUSSION -----

At this time, the CloseView control panel is not compatible with PowerPC-based computers.
