TOPIC -----

I have heard that there is a new MathLib Shared Library extension replacing the MathLib in the Power Macintosh ROMs. How do I obtain this software from Apple?

DISCUSSION -----

Currently, the MathLib Shared Library (1.0a) is undergoing alpha testing and is only being distributed to Apple Developers and APDA subscribers of the E.T.O. (Essentials•Tools•Objects) package. Once the new shared library is fully tested, it will be released through the normal Apple software update channels. Customers that wish to obtain the software now, may contact APDA at 1-800-282-2732 to order the E.T.O. subscription.
