TOPIC -----

Can the Newton MessagePad Fax Modem be used with a Macintosh?

DISCUSSION -----

With the proper software, the Newton MessagePad Fax Modem may work with a Macintosh. It may be compatible with Macintosh communications software that uses the Hayes V Series "AT" command set for data transmission and fax software that is compatible with the Rockwell 224ATF chip set for Fax send/receive.

Apple has not tested the Newton MessagePad Fax Modem with Macintosh computers and does not support its use with Macintosh computers.
