TOPIC ---

At intervals of about 15 to 30 minutes, the phrase "Welcome to Datacomp" will get pasted where ever a user might be, in applications, the Finder, even in SoftWindows in the DOS environment.

DISCUSSION --

We have learned that this keyboard was manufactured by Triumph Technologies. We have also heard that DataComp is located in Taipei, Taiwan, and they incorporated this message into their ROMs to prevent others from copying them.
Other keyboards with this ROM could also be affected.

To fix this behavior, you will need to replace the keyboard.
