QuickTake 150 Close-Up Lens Works With QuickTake 100 (6/95)

Article Created: 13 June 1995

TOPIC -----

Can I use the close-up lens that comes with the QuickTake 150 with the QuickTake 100?

DISCUSSION -----

The QuickTake 150 for Macintosh (M3790LL/A) and the QuickTake 150 for Windows (M3791LL/A) come with a close-up lens attachment that provides:

- Accurate image capture from 10-inches to 14-inches
- Parallax error correction
- Flash diffusion
- Built-in rangefinder

The close-up lens attachment will work with the QuickTake 100, as well. However, the close-up lens attachment is available ONLY as a service part (922-1371).

Part numbers mentioned in this article are accurate as of this writing. Before ordering, verify that they are still correct as they are subject to change.
