DISCUSSION -----

The QuickTake 100 Upgrade Program was in effect from August 2 to December 15, 1995. It was a firmware upgrade only; there was not any upgrade to the external housing or plastics, but the upgraded camera included a QuickTake 100 Plus label. The specific features and items included were:

- Increased storage capabilities. 1 MB of FLASH EPROM, which stores up to 32 standard-resolution images, 16 high-resolution images or a combination of high- and standard-resolution images
- Close-up Lens. Capable of provide accurate image capture from 10 to 14 inches
- Larger image size. 640 X 480 resolution (for both high- and standard-quality)
- QuickTake 150 Manual
- PhotoFlash 2.0 (for owners of the QuickTake 100 for Macintosh)
- PhotoNow! (for owners of the QuickTake 100 for Windows)

The upgraded firmware has a one-year warranty.
