AppleLink: How To Get CCL Scripting Support (1/96)

Article Created: 5 July 1990
Article Reviewed/Updated: 19 January 1996

TOPIC ---

I need a CCL that allows me to dial up AppleLink through my campus ISN modem pool. Is there a generic ISN CCL available? Who do I contact for CCL scripting support?

DISCUSSION --

For information on how to write command control language (CCL) scripts, please look on AppleLink in the CCL Support folder. This folder is in the AppleLink HelpDesk section.
