Apple Internet Mailing Lists: How to Subscribe (1/97)

Article Created: 23 May 1995

Article Reviewed/Updated: 27 January 1997

TOPIC -----

Apple Computer, Inc. provides a number of mailing lists that can keep you informed of the latest information in the following areas. Any customer with an Internet email address or a commercial online service account with Internet email access can subscribe and unsubscribe to any of the following mailing lists.

DISCUSSION -----

- 1) Apple Press Releases - receive copies of all press releases created by Apple.
- 2) Apple Information Alley - receive the now daily Information Alley, containing the latest tips and information on using and supporting Apple products.
- 3) You can obtain the latest information on where to find Apple Software Updates via automated email. Below are the documents we currently have available, where to send the email message to and what to type so you can obtain the latest information related to Apple SW Updates.
- 4) Apple Developer Directions Express - Summarizes the latest Developer News from Apple - what's happening at Apple, how we're doing, what we're thinking about, and where we're headed. What we send you will be the latest, most interesting, and--we hope--most useful information Apple has to offer. We'll try not to bug you too much--three or four times each month is what we currently plan, but both the content and the frequency of this mailing list may change, depending on reader feedback.
