PowerCD: Available in Two Colors ? (10/93)

Article Created: 1 November 1993

TOPIC -----

Does the PowerCD come in two colors?

DISCUSSION -----

There were two models (by color) in NTSC and PAL. The Gray was for the business and education channels and the Blue for the consumer. This was the initial strategy. It has since changed. The Blue is no longer available. In Apple USA, model H001411/A, which was Blue, changed to H0014LL/B, which is Gray. The only difference today between the business and consumer channel models are the CDs that come with the PowerCD.
