Color StyleWriter 2200: Universal Power Adapter Available (9/95)

Article Created: 26 September 1995

TOPIC -----

I am going to do some international traveling with my Color StyleWriter 220. Will the power adapter that came with my printer work properly in countries outside the United States?

DISCUSSION -----

The Color StyleWriter 2200 ships with a power adapter designed to work in the country where it is sold. The following chart lists the specifications for the power adapters sold in the various regions.

Begin_Table

Country	Voltage	Frequency
=====	=====	=====
USA	120V + 10%/-15%	60 +/-2 Hz
Japan	100V +/- 10%	50 +/-2 Hz
Europe	220V +/-10%	50 +/-2 Hz
Australia	240V +/-10%	50 +/-2 Hz
UK	240V +/-10%	50 +/-2 Hz

End_Table

An optional universal power adapter which handles 100-240 volts at 50-60 Hz is available by ordering the M4133G/A Universal Power Adapter. The universal power adapter has a detachable power cord which provides flexibility because it accepts any standard Macintosh power cord, allowing you to easily adapt to the many different power plug configurations available worldwide.
