Color LaserWriter 12/600 PS: Pantone Software (7/95)

Article Created: 27 June 1995

Article Reviewed/Updated: 27 July 1995

TOPIC -----

The Color LaserWriter 12/600 PS includes a card referring to Pantone calibration software. What is this software, and where is it available?

DISCUSSION -----

The PANTONE software basically consists of PANTONE color palettes that have been "tuned" for the Color LaserWriter 12/600 PS. The palettes have been created in application-specific file formats for the most popular desktop publishing applications that use the PANTONE color matching system. Loading these color palettes into the specified applications allows you to closely match screen colors to output colors on the Color LaserWriter 12/600 PS.

The PANTONE files for the Color LaserWriter 12/600 PS are available on online services.
