LaserWriter 16/600 PS: Laser Engine Used (10/94)

Article Created: 13 October 1994

TOPIC -----

The LaserWriter 16/600 PS specification sheet states that it uses a "true laser engine". Please provide more specific information on the type of print engine used.

DISCUSSION -----

The LaserWriter Pro 16/600 PS is based on a Canon P430 laser print engine. The overall design is very similar to the one used in the LaserWriter Pro 630, however the performance has been improved significantly to 17 US Letter pages-per-minute.
